Twelve DOE-mandated actions to fully implement information security policy and improve security were successfully completed. The new information security procedures cover system certification and accreditation, computer and media marking, access management, wireless and portable device control, incident management, risk mitigation, and disaster recovery and greatly improve the security posture of the Laboratory.

DOE-mandated information security measures implemented

Thirteen DOE-mandated actions to improve information security were completed. Items covered system certification and accreditation, computer and media marking, access management, wireless and portable device control, incident management, risk mitigation, and disaster recovery.